ARBOR DAYOBSERVED

School Children Plant Japanese Cherry Trees.

ADDRESS BY D. B. FAIRCHILD

Special Programme at Franklin School-Mrs. J. R. Hill Presides-P. M. Hughes Also Makes Speech to Students-Exercises in All Schools of the District of Columbia.

Arbor Day was celebrated in all the public schools of the District yesterday with the planting of Japanese cherry trees imported from the kingdom of the Rising Sun by David B. Fairchild, of the Department of Agriculture. .

The tree-planting and the accompany ing exercises were held at 2 o'clock in nearly all the schools.

One boy in each school, who had received instructions as to how the trees should be planted, prepared places for them. In the presence of all pupils the roots were placed in the ground and covered with earth.

At the Franklin School a special programme was carried out. The ground around the school afforded no place for tree planting, consequently it was planted in Franklin Park, across Thirteenth

This was done at 11:30 o'clock in order that the younger pupils might participate. Special Arbor Day exercises were held in the school hall at 1:45 o'clock. Mrs. J. R. Hill, a member of the board of education and chairman of the committee on school gardens, presided. David B. Fairchild, donor of the trees, spoke to the children. He told them of the verdure of Japan, with the aid of many pic-tures taken in Japan. P. M. Hughes, the assistant superin-tendent of schools in the District, also
